

ABOUT ME

Born in Oslo, July 18, 1970. I am the mother of two boys born in 1996 and 2001

I am an engaged woman with a lot of iron in the fire. My big passion is photography and since January 2013 I have had this as my main work and livelihoods with focus on photographing confirmations, family and children. In addition to my own art-projects as often as I can

I have no formal education beyond 9-year primary school. I have had several companies and several management positions and managerial positions since I started working as a 16 year old.

Autodidact both in photography and painting with acrylics
